

August 19, 2007

IN THE MARKET

The intown vibe

Options abound in trendy intown. You can choose to live in a high-rise with shops, restaurants and a hotel, a small building with a few lofts, or a detached single-family home. Here are four new intown properties with units to fit all types of budgets.

— Lori Johnston, for the Journal-Constitution

	Community	Price	City	Homes	Bedrooms	Square feet	Don't miss the ...	Builder	The 411
	870 Inman	$180,000s-$350,000s	Atlanta	108	1-2	813-1,463	amenities, including a saltwater pool with sun deck and private cabanas	IP Lofts	404-373-5077, www.870inman.com
	Brookhaven Manor	$789,900-$809,900	Atlanta	33	2-3	2,600-3,000	features, including Wolf kitchen appliances and travertine tile	John Willis Homes	404-240-1995, www.johnwillishomes.com
	TWELVE Centennial Park Hotel and Residences	$200,000s-$600,000s	Atlanta	992 (517 in Phase 1; 475 in Phase 2)	1-2	743-1,494	amenities, including laundry service, housekeeping, car valet, room service	Builder: Novare Group	404-961-8888, www.twelvecentennialpark.com
	Castleberry Point	low $200,000s-$700,000s	Atlanta	108	1-3	748-2,800	amenities, including rooftop pool with downtown views	Miller Gallman Developers	404-688-9900, www.castleberrypoint.com